

CH-259
Smoot Hall, site
Port Tobacco

c. 1880-1900

A square, two-story, hip-roofed structure of frame construction that was probably built between about 1880 and 1900. It may have been built to replace the Smoot Hotel, which burned in 1883, the eat from which broke numerous windows in the nearby courthouse.
